

1 reference to the State board makes it difficult to vote
2 against this particular amendment. However, in further 3 considering this it would seem apparent that if this 4 amendment were adopted, we would then be faced with ad-
5 ditional questions concerning language in State superin-
6 tendent, and therefore, I would urge the Convention, the 7 Committee to vote against the particular amendment, even 8 though it doesn't appropriate the reference to the board 9 and suggest further that the debate could be limited to 10 more specific issues in Section 4.

11 I also would like to comment on the question of 12 draftsmanship. It would seem to me more appropriate that 13 Section 1 would be a general statement of educational 14 policy throughout the State, and that Sections 4 and 5
15 would be held to more specific areas; and for that reason,
16 draftsmanship and on the substantive questions presented,
17 I would respectfully urge the Committee to reject this 18 amendment.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: We now enter the period of uncon-20 trolled but limited debate. Are there any amendments to 21 the amendment to be submitted? Is Delegate Kirkland in the
